'No Menace'

By HARRY KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says "there are undoubtedly missiles in Cuba" but not of the type that would menace the United States.

"Based on the information available to me," he said, "I believe that there are no surface missiles in Cuba threatening this country today."

McNamara put his views on the record in an exclusive interview with The Associated Press as a congressional hue and cry rose over Soviet military strength on the island 90 miles from the American coast.

One issue of the controversy is just how many Soviet troops are in Cuba. President Kennedy has estimated 17,000. Some legislators have expressed belief there are many more.

McNamara would not be drawn into that question. He said he would rather not comment on the presence of Soviet troops or reports they seem to be digging in to stay.

But he declared that one reason for the maze of persistent reports on ballistic missiles in Cuba may be confusion over the various kinds of missiles that are there.

"The reports perhaps confuse ground-to-ground, intermediate-range ballistic missiles (a type the United States considers offensive) on the one hand with the other types of missiles which undoubtedly are stocked in Cuba," he said.

Of this latter category, McNamara ticked off five kinds:

- "1. Air defense missiles.
- "2. Air-to-air missiles used by fighters to attack other fighters.
- "3. Surface-to-sea missiles used

There will be representatives from the Brown-Miller Pickle Company of Texarkana attending this meeting. They will have contracts for growers to sign and also seed for growing the cucumbers.

Baby Taken From Dead Mother Dies

WASHINGTON (AP)—A baby boy died Monday night about 5½ hours after doctors had delivered him from the body of his mother, shot to death 20 minutes before.

The premature 4½-pound infant was kept alive by mouth to mouth resuscitation at Casualty Hospital, but he died after being transferred to District of Columbia General Hospital.

Charged with murder in the shooting of Mrs. Robert Truesdale Jr. was her estranged husband, Police said Tuesday, 24, ran into a precinct station four blocks from her home and told officers, "I shot my wife, here's the gun."

Fire department Pvt. Anthony P. Procci who accompanied the ambulance to the scene noted that Mrs. Truesdale was pregnant and detected sign of life in the unborn baby. The dead woman was rushed to the hospital where a team of surgeons headed by Dr. Henry H. Canton performed a cesarean section to deliver the infant.

Truesdale was arraigned on a first-degree murder charge. The couple had one other child.

The issue carries no tax levy. Time for payments would be extended.

The federal government would pay almost two-thirds of the estimate total cost of $500,000 to make the improvements.

Barnett Is Applauded at Harvard

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Mississippi Gov. Ross Barnett sounded what he termed a clarion call for states rights Monday night before a polite, frequently applauding audience here.

Barnett was the chief speaker at the Harvard Law School Forum. About two dozen pickets protested his appearance as a police car drove him to the theater at Harvard.

Officials of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People pleaded for "orderly, integrated audience."

An estimated 25 Negroes were in the audience of 1,500.

The Harvard campus became his forum when Cambridge city officials refused to let him speak at the Rindge Technical High School, which has a heavy Negro enrollment.

The audience, composed mainly of Harvard law students, was polite and applauded frequently during Barnett's 15-page speech.

Barnett sounded a "clarion call for the states to come to their own defense and obtain a restoration of constitutional government."

He did not touch on the case of James H. Meredith, the 29-year-old Negro whose entrance into the University of Mississippi touched off riots on the university campus last September. Two men died and dozens were injured in the riots.

At the start of the hearing, the judge told attorneys the only question to be decided was whether Greene was rejected solely because of his race.

Greene contends the suit resulting in Meredith's enrollment was a class action and that the court decree ordering Meredith admitted applies to cases of all Negro applicants.

His suit also asks the court to hold Ellis in contempt of court for turning him down.

Application Hearing on Greene

HATTIESBURG, Miss. (AP)—A federal judge has delayed a ruling on Dorey Greene Jr.'s application to the University of Mississippi until the 22-year-old Negro exhausts all administrative remedies.

U.S. Dist. Judge Sidney Mize told Greene Monday to appeal his rejection to the university's committee on admissions.

The committee could overrule Registrar Robert Ellis, who testified he turned Greene down because Greene's scholastic record wasn't good enough.

Ellis is chairman of the admission committee, which includes the deans of the various schools, divisions and colleges, the dean of student affairs and the dean of women.

Mize, who twice ruled against James H. Meredith's admission until an appeals court reversed him, deferred action after a one-day hearing of Greene's suit seeking a court order directing the university to enroll him.

Ellis testified Greene's average for two quarters at Mississippi Vocational School for Negroes was about D-plus. His high school grades were even poorer, Ellis said.

In addition, the registrar said, Mississippi Vocational lacks accreditation.

The university turns down as many as 100 applications, Ellis testified, for the same reason as it did Greene's—an inadequate scholastic record.

At Mississippi Vocational, Dean O. P. Love said Greene wasn't the school's best student but was eligible to return there. At Greenwood, L. H. Threadgill, Greene's high school principal, said Greene was in the lowest part of his class.

Legislative Group Votes to Abolish Game & Fish Forester and His Two Chief Assistants

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Legislature's Joint Budget Committee voted today to abolish the positions of chief forester and his two assistants in the Game and Fish Commission.

The committee voted to appropriate $15,000 for the state Forestry Service to take over forestry duties of the Game and Fish Commission.

Rep. Paul Van Dalsem of Perry County accused the Game and Fish Commission of badly handling its administrative duties, and he led a move against proposed Game and Fish Commission pay raise requests. The committee cut requested pay increases to about half in several cases.

The committee voted to raise the salaries of the chief of enforcement above that recommended by the Legislative Council. The raise was from $6,300 to $7,500, $500 more than the council had recommended.

Van Dalsem said that if the proposed budget was approved with the increases intact, the bill probably would have trouble passing the House.

The House Education Committee announced that it will hold a public hearing at 10 a. m. Tuesday on a Senate bill which would lower to 15 years the age for an unrestricted driver's license.

The House Judiciary Committee approved a bill to give authority to the Board of Higher Education Finance to approve any bond issue at a state college.

The House State Agencies Committee recommended against passage of a bill to spell out a prohibition against conflict of interest involving members of state boards or commissions and school board.

The Legislature left the state Land Department stranded with a $38,970 annual budget Monday and began whacking away at the backlog of pending appropriations bills.

The Land Department's budget was included in the general appropriations bill which was approved by the House 89-0 after another effort by Perry County Rep. Paul Van Dalsem to boost the agency's allocation was beaten off.

There will be other chances to amend the general bill, but the enthusiasm with which the House repulsed Van Dalsem's try left little hope that any change will be made.

The Legislative Council set the land agency's budget at the $38,970 figure after a council committee recommended that the department be abolished. The bill calls for only seven employees.

The agency has 14 employees and a $73,100 annual budget under the current appropriation which expires June 30.

The Senate passed its version of the general bill last week. This is pending in the House and an effort could be made to amend the land agency budget when it comes to a vote. Or the Senate could try to amend the House bill. Neither move is expected, however.

Van Dalsem tried twice last week to get the disputed budget increased but his proposed amendments were defeated. He was able to block final passage of the bill for Monday's do-or-die try. Van Dalsem said he won't

Cabinet Asks Diefenbaker to Bow Out

By MAX HARRELSON

OTTAWA (A)—A tide of votes built up today against Prime Minister John Diefenbaker's government in Canada's nuclear warhead crisis. At least one no-confidence motion appeared to have a good chance to topple the badly split Conservative party from power.

There was a possibility that Diefenbaker, to head off defeat in the House of Commons, would dissolve Parliament on his own initiative and call new elections.

Defeat of the government on a vote of no-confidence would mean dissolution of Parliament shortly after, with a new election about 60 days later.

There was wide agreement among Commons members that the government could not survive a vote.

The crisis, brought to a head last week by a public U.S. State Department demand that Canada accept nuclear warheads, moved toward a climax Monday with the resignation of Defense Minister Douglas Harkness.

Harkness told a packed House of Commons that Canada should have obtained the U.S. warheads long ago.

In the tense debate that followed Harkness' statement, two of Canada's three opposition parties—the Liberals and the Social Credit party—presented motions of no-confidence.

An informal poll indicated that the motion of the Social Credit party could gather enough support to bring down the government when the showdown voting comes tonight. The Social Credit motion was presented as an amendment to the Liberal motion and was to be voted on first.

With two vacancies in the 265-member House of Commons, 132 votes are needed to unseat the government if all members vote. The Social Credit party has 30 seats and appeared to have a good chance of getting the 99 Liberal votes. An informal poll of the third opposition party, the New Democrats with 19 seats, indicated they would join the anti-government ranks.

The Conservatives, with 115 seats, have been exercising minority rule since the elections last June but have managed to stay in power with Social Credit support.

On the nuclear issue, Diefenbaker has maintained that the U.S.-British Polaris agreement at Nassau has cast doubt on the wisdom of a Canadian nuclear role. He also said greater emphasis must be placed on non-nuclear weapons.

Earlier debate in Commons on the issue brought a statement from the State Department last Wednesday that nuclear weapons are necessary to the U.S.-Canada defense of North America and that during recent secret negotiations Canada had been dragging its heels on the question.

JFK Offers Bill to Help Mental Patients

By JOHN BARBOUR

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy urged today bold new programs he said would eventually free hundreds of thousands of mental patients from hospital beds and lighten the tragic toll of mental retardation.

The cost for the first year would be $31.35 million, but it might cost many millions more when the program accelerates.

His proposals were in a special message to Congress on mental health—the first such message sent to Capitol Hill by an American president.

Kennedy asked for an across-the-board legislative program for new community mental health centers, the centerpiece for bringing the mentally ill back to a useful life, and preventing new cases earlier.

More pre-natal care for mothers-to-be to help insure their infants will not be doomed to mental retardation.

Farm Bureau Starts Drive for Members

Membership sign-up is the principal activity of Hempstead County Farm Bureau this week and it will continue to be throughout February or until the current campaign is successfully concluded, according to county Farm Bureau President Aubrey Wilson.

The Membership drive got underway last night with the kick-off banquet at the Barlow Hotel, with a total of fifty-six workers present. John L. Wilson was the guest speaker. The Shover Springs Home Demonstration Ladies and Mrs. Lester Kent were in charge of the entertainment. Mrs. Roger Pills played the piano.

"This will be a particularly busy year with both the General Assembly and Congress in session," R. D. Huffman, (membership chairman) said, "We are attempting to attain our goal as early as possible in order that full attention may be devoted to these other matters."

Assisting the membership chairman in heading the personal contact phase of the drive are: Ed Cowan township Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Fornby, and Bryan Camp.

Bois D'Arc — Mrs. Mary Spates and Jack Anderson, DeRoan — Wm. Schooley, Mr. and Mrs. John Hawkins, Sidney Cash, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reeco.

Garland — Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Burke.

Mine Creek — Sloman Goodfellow and Reg Alexander.

Noland — Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Burke and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burke.

Ozan — Mr. and Mrs. Donald Worthey, Moss Rowe, and Thurston Hulsey.

Redland — Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Prescott and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Spicer.

Spring Hill — Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reilly, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Kidd, & Mr. and Mrs. Warren Butler.

Water Creek — Mr. and Mrs. Troy Burson, N. B. Coleman and Harold Bobo.

The goal for the campaign is 600 farm families here in Hempstead County. Last year's final total was 631. Figure for the state organization was 49,318 in 1962, and American Farm Bureau Federation enrolled more than 1,600,000.

"Volunteer" membership workers will have their first check-up Monday night February 11th, 7:00 o'clock at the Farm Bureau Office with a pot-luck supper, and will report that night to the state Farm Bureau office at Little Rock. A second check-up and report is scheduled for February 25th.

The missile issue was brought up again Monday by Rep. Donald C. Bruce, R-Ind.

tal retardation.

More child health care to detect and treat threatened cases earlier.

More trained personnel and facilities for training and rehabilitation of the mentally ill and retarded.

More research centers to get at the causes and, hopefully, the cures.

Specifically, the President intends to introduce four new bills, one of them not to be fully implemented until the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1964.

That bill would encourage state or local governments or non-profit groups to establish networks of community mental health centers. It would provide part of the construction costs and up to 75 percent of the staff costs for the first 15 months, decreasing thereafter for the rest of the four-year program. There is no price tag for this program.

It now costs the American taxpayer more than $2.4 billion a year for services to the mentally ill and retarded, the President said.

Within a decade or two, the President said, a broad, new mental health program can reduce by at least half the 600,000 hospitalized mental patients.

"Many more mentally ill can be helped to remain in their own homes without hardship to themselves or their families," he said. "Those who are hospitalized can be helped to return to their own communities. All but a small proportion can be restored to useful life."

The community mental health center can be the focus of care, diagnosis, rehabilitation and emergency service, he said. It would operate day and night, for inpatients and outpatients. It would aim at prevention as well as treatment.

Such centers, using new methods of treatment and tranquilizers, will reduce the treatment periods to weeks or months, rather than years, the President said. This means that mental illness could be paid for as other medical and hospital costs.

The President said he has directed that a study be made to explore ways for encouraging expansion of private health insurance.

try again.

The Senate passed 25 appropriations bills and the House 23 Monday. The bills with minor exceptions follow recommendations drawn up by the Legislative Council during a six-week round of budget hearings in November and December.

In most cases, each House was acting on its own bills. Action by the other house may come later this week. The package of Senate bills approved Monday included appropriations for the University of Arkansas and seven state colleges.

Outside budget matters, the House gave 89-0 approval to a House bill which would permit formation of professional corporations. The bill would give lawyers and other professional groups the same right granted doctors and dentists by a 1961 law.

Pulaski County Rep. Jim Brandt introduced a proposed constitutional amendment Monday to permit consolidation of two or more adjacent counties on a favorable vote in all counties concerned.

House bills introduced Monday included measures to:

Give a 4½-cent per gallon gasoline tax refund on fuel sold for use in motorboats.

Require approval by the Board of Higher Education Finance for revenue bond construction projects planned by state institutions of higher learning.

Designate the Mount Holly Cemetery in Little Rock as a state shrine.

Permit creation of mutual savings banks.

Prohibit publication of editorials and letters to the editor without identification of the authors.

A Senate bill introduced by Sen. Dan White of Fort Smith would prohibit cities from collecting taxes in annexed territory until city water, sewer and fire protection services are extended into the territory.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus said Monday that he could not look with favor on any legislation which might reduce highway revenues.

The motor fuel refund bill is such legislation. The House already has passed a bill to give farmers a full 6½ cent refund (now 4½ cents) on gasoline bought for agricultural purposes.

At the same time Faubus indicated he might support a bill by Sen. Robert Harvey of Swifton to increase the tax on diesel fuel used by heavy trucks from 6½ cents to 8½ cents per gallon.

The Senate passed a House bill which would increase the pay of general election judges and clerks from $4 to $7 a day and approved Sen. Nathan Coulter's bill to provide for reinstatement of county officials suspended for mishandling funds if he is proved innocent of the charge.

The House was to reconvene at noon and the Senate at 1 p.m. today.

Senate appropriations bills approved include measures allocating more than $6 million for operation of the University of Arkansas, the Medical Center and seven state colleges during the next two years.

Wife A Spoiled Baby

Dear Helen: Every year during the past five years of our marriage, my wife has deserted me. I dearly love her and our three children but feel our marriage is reaching a dead end and so, in desperation, turn to you.

We have a nice house and comfortable income. I've worked hard to provide my family with the luxuries and necessities of life. And still, without a moment's warning, my wife traipses off with the kids.

The first three years it was to visit Mama but each time those visits prolonged into a three-months stay. My mother in law, who is a sensible woman, finally put her foot down.

Now that my wife can't run home to Mama she runs to her brother when she doesn't get her own way. If she doesn't get it, she flies at me like a young tornado. Being of a quiet, peaceful nature, I give in mostly rather than start a rumpus. But this is bad for she'll be five times more demanding in the succeeding weeks.

Her capriciousness is driving me and the kids nuts. Figuratively we tiptoe through the house, forever doing "Mama's way." Should not I, as the man of the family have some say? I've tried talking to her about this but she refuses to listen, screaming that it's I, not her, who causes all the trouble. I am open to any suggestion you have which will change what to me is the big tragedy of my life. — Disgusted and Desperate Husband.

Dear Disgusted: You have brought this situation on yourself by knuckling under to your wife. Apparently you're an easy going, good natured guy who wants peace at any price. That just doesn't work as you're finding out.

The more you give in to this spoiled baby, the more she will demand. Stop for the good of every body concerned.

Assert yourself but be sure (and this is important) that you have good cause.

Show your fair mindedness by going along with your wife when she is right, yet make it clear that you're the boss. Have a show down on this score. Discipline her as you would a child, for that is what she is. Patience and self control are essential.

When you feel she is in the wrong, tell her so and explain why, being careful not to lose your temper. Give your wife a shot of courage by saying NO! Stick to it no matter how many tantrums your wife throws.

Dear Helen: Though 21 and happily married I still live in deadly terror of my father. It dates back to the day I came home from school with a boy's name on my notebook. My father saw it and, despite my tearful explanation that my girl friend had written it, got out the belt strap and beat me senseless.

When I came to I caught a bus and went to the next town, found a job and — eventually, a wonderful husband. I've not seen my father since and am afraid that he will read about the birth of our baby in the newspaper and come and get me. What shall I do? — Frantic Mrs. J.

Dear Frantic: You are 21 and married. Your father no longer has any jurisdiction over you but for your own peace of mind it might be wise not to remain in the house alone. You know your father and husband, I don't. Normally your husband as head and protector of his family, should take the aggressive and, if your father has threatened you, either see him in person or have a lawyer advise him of your rights.

Dear Helen: I have a neighbor who is a nuisance. We've moved here a short time ago. The very day after we arrived the neighbor next door, a short, fat, dumpy little woman was knocking on our door. Could she borrow some butter? I gave her a quarter of a pound and said, "Keep it."

Next day she was back for some dimes, nickels and quarters—bus for change. Good-naturedly I forked over what change I had: four dimes and two nickels. That was two months ago and she has not yet returned it, or the dozen and one other borrowed items. What ever can we do?—Flattened

Dear Flattened: Not all neighbors are good neighbors and can't be treated as such. You've been over-kind. Next time that nifty neighbor rings your doorbell tell her, politely but firmly, that much as you would like to see her, you simply have not the time in an already crowded schedule.

Say it with a smile but close the door firmly. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my letter, "Neighbors." Pass it along to her if she continues to pester you.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Talent Alone Not Enough Nowadays

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Once upon a time when audiences sought out entertainment, the figures beyond the footlights were judged — accepted and rejected — almost completely in terms of their talents.

But talent — as a singer, as a pianist — just isn't enough nowadays when the entertainment, via television, seeks the audiences.

"If a performer makes a successful record album or two, people become interested in seeing him," explained pianist Peter Nero. "But after they've seen him once, they can go back to playing his records."

Thus it has become necessary for singers and instrumentalists to add other strings to their bows. Nero, like many others, is developing a sideline of ice-breaking talk.

"Every musician wants to communicate through his music," the Brooklyn-born pianist said. "But if I can make people understand my music better by talking, I must certainly do it. I will not sacrifice artistic integrity — I'll talk, smile, kid around, but the music will be there."

The 28-year-old keyboard artist is kept busy with guest appearances on most of the top television variety shows. One of his worst problems is persuading writers to give him some lines.

"The writers think musicians can't talk. Last season, I was on a Bob Newhart show, and was hoping to have a chance to exchange some remarks with Bob. So they had Bob come out with his drums and ask if I'd play with him. 'Love to, Bob,' I was to say."

"Exactly a year later, I was doing a George Gobel show, and he came out with his guitar and asked if I'd play with him. 'Love to, George,' was my line. That's about how it goes."

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Dr. Glen Haddock, professor of mathematics at Arkansas College here, has been named academic dean of the college, it was announced Saturday. Dr. Paul M. McCain, president of the college, said Haddock will assume his new duties in September. Haddock is a native of Jasper.

Mrs. N. W. Denty went to Little Rock Friday to be at the bedside of her husband at the VA Hospital.

Campbell Co. to Build at Fayetteville

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Campbell Soup Co. said today it will build a new multi-million dollar plant to provide larger and more modern facilities for its frozen food operations in the Watson frozen food operations in Fayetteville. Plans call for 85,000 square feet of working area with initial employment of 150 to 200 persons. Some of them will be transferred from the old plant on West Spring St. in Fayetteville.

The new plant will be on a 40-acre plot on 15th St., adjoining the Campbell hatchery. It will house all frozen prepared food operations now located in the plant on West Spring, which will be used for poultry operations. Construction will begin in the spring and the building will be completed in 1964.

Henry Shreve, manager of the Swanson plant, said growth in the consumer demand for frozen convenience foods made the expansion necessary. Since 1955, production at the plant has tripled, he said. Campbell spends $13 million annually in salaries to employees and purchases of ingredients, supplies and services in a 50-mile radius of Fayetteville, Shreve said.

Campbell President W. B. Murphy notified Gov. Orval E. Faubus of the expansion plans by telegram.

"We trust this action conveys to you our continuing faith in the harmony of business, labor and government in Arkansas and our expectations for the economic growth of the southern states," Murphy said.

CHATTER

By BILL RALEY

Ever since Eve came out in that smart little fig-leaf at the Garden Party, the oldest and most interesting form of entertainment for women has been the style show.

We attend one every chance we get, whether we are buying or selling. A recent visit to market brings us right up to date on what will be worn for Spring, and we would like to pass along some of the news and views to you.

The Young Elegant look will now be the Soft Look. We heard more about the Snapped-Up look than the Under-Stayed one. The little - dress - that - takes - you - everywhere will be replaced by two or three or more, and they will be colorful. Black will always be smart because it is slenderizing, but it will be accented with color. Soft yellow, as sunny as the South, Raspberry red, sometimes called Cherry Fizz, pale green and all the off-shades of white. Pin stripes and checks, woven on the bias but cut on the straight, give dash to suits and costume dresses. Pleats are feminine, and a pleated skirt should be included in every woman's wardrobe.

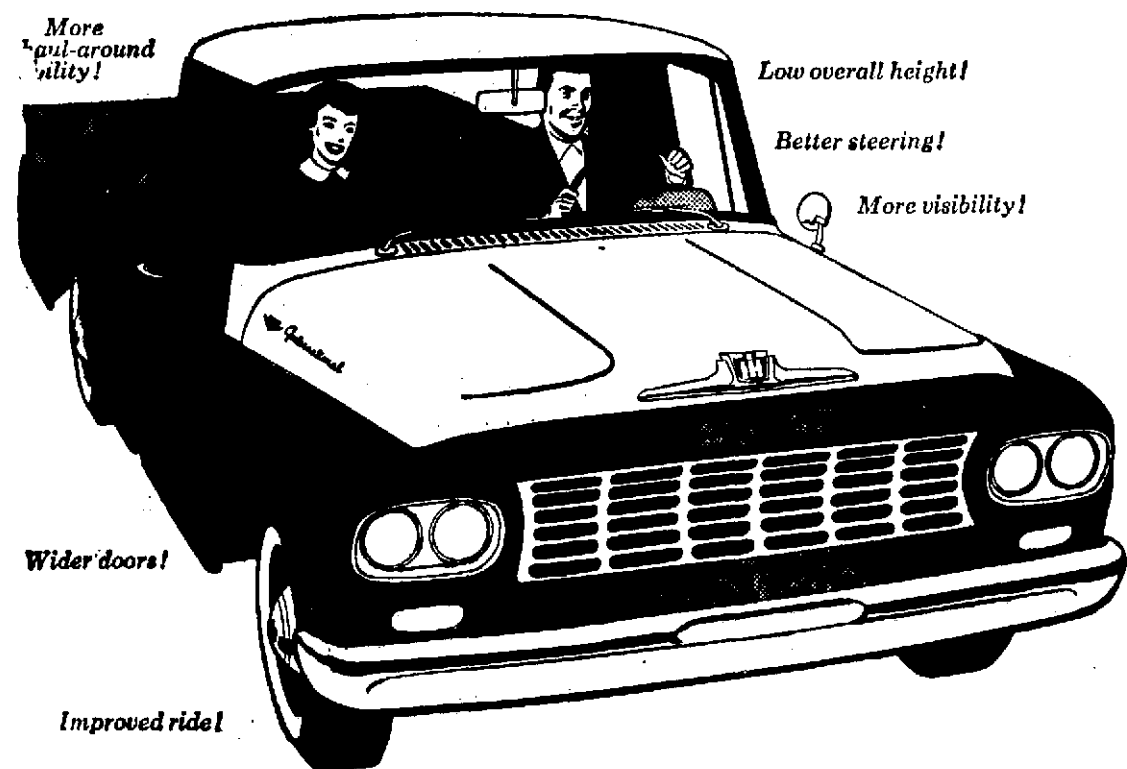

To say "I have a knit" will be just like saying "I've read a book." You cannot have too many simply because they are the most flattering, slimming, easy - to - pack - and - wear garments on the market.

These are only a few observations; to get the full fashion picture, come to Raley's Style Shoppe. Our Spring clothes are honestly beautiful; your first purchase will probably be one of the Briny Marlin suits, lovely colors, sizes 8 to 18 and priced at only $49.95.

We invite you to the continuous fashion show which is now taking place at Raley's Style Shoppe, Hope's House of Fashion.

Avalanches Set Off by Snow

TOKYO (AP) — Avalanches set off by heavy snow continued today to raise the toll in lives and property in Japan's worst winter in decades.

National police reported 97 persons killed, many by snowslides, 7 missing and 137 injured in four weeks of almost unbroken blizzards.

Avalanches and the weight of snow on roofs have crushed 973 homes, damaged 970 and paralyzed rail and road traffic along the Japan sea coast.

U.S., Britain on Direct Phone Line

By ENDRE MARTON

WASHINGTON (AP) — When ever Dean Rusk, the secretary of state, has something urgent to tell to David Bruce, the U.S. ambassador to Britain, he can pick up the telephone and talk to the diplomat in London in seconds.

When the White House or the State Department has a message, coded or uncoded, for the embassy in London, it can send it by direct teletype.

This is what the Kennedy administration wants to achieve in its communications with the U.S. Embassy in Moscow.

Presently Rusk can do two things if he wants to send word to Foy D. Kohler, ambassador to Moscow. He may put through a long distance call—just as anyone else does who has some business in the Soviet capital, or he can send a coded cable through commercial channels. Once in Moscow, it may or may not be delivered promptly.

The problem of better communications around the world, and especially with Moscow, became an urgent issue during last fall's Cuban crisis when so much depended on fast and accurate exchanges with Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

President Kennedy said at a recent news conference "speed is very desirable, so we are hoping we can get instantaneous communication" with Moscow.

There was immediate speculation that Kennedy had in mind a special telephone, a direct line between the White House and the Kremlin.

Nothing so dramatic was considered. Khrushchev does not speak English, and Kennedy does not speak Russian.

What Kennedy had in mind was much simpler: to send a message to Khrushchev—or, for that matter, to any other head of government—through normal diplomatic channels, but with a speed worthy of the nuclear age.

After the Cuban crisis Kennedy and Rusk gave orders that the State Department, together with other agencies, study what should be done to improve the situation.

The study—a hush-hush operation—is still going on. William H. Orrick Jr., deputy undersecretary of state for administration, is in charge. A group of communications experts from government agencies and private industry meets regularly behind doors guarded by Marines.

Bearcats Have Posted Another Big Triumph

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Cincinnati's streaking Bearcats have posted another triumph in their drive to establish themselves as one of college basketball's all-time top teams, settling a minor score in the bargain.

Fired by the shooting of Ron Bonham and showing their customary tenacious defense, the Bearcats recorded a 71-60 victory Monday night over the Drake team that threw a scare into them last week. Drake took the nation's No. 1 club into overtime Thursday night before falling 65-60.

Cincinnati now is 18-0 this season and has won 26 straight over-all for the third longest victory string ever. San Francisco holds the record of 60 in a row in 1954-55 and North Carolina won 37 straight in 1957-58. Cincy will have a shot at tying North Carolina's total this Saturday against Bradley.

In Monday night's other headline attractions—fourth-ranked Illinois strengthened its Big Ten lead by outlasting Indiana 104-101 in a free-wheeling affair; Oklahoma State topped seventh-ranked Colorado 52-49 and threw the Big Eight race wide open; Mississippi State pushed into a first-place tie in the Southeastern

Trade Already Paying Off

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The baseball trade that sent Luis Aparicio from the Chicago White Sox to the Baltimore Orioles last month already is paying off as far as the speedy shortstop is concerned.

There's nothing like a change of uniform and a new pay contract to make a discontented player happy, and Aparicio showed his satisfaction by signing his 1963 contract Monday.

Although terms were not revealed, it was reported that the 29-year-old Venezuelan would receive about $37,500, the same salary he drew from the White Sox last season.

Luis had been miffed when the White Sox threatened him with a sizable pay slash before the trade.

Conference by whipping Tulane 91-73; fifth-ranked Arizona State ran over New Mexico State 89-62; and Georgia Tech, No. 6, needed some clutch work by a pair of reserves to squeeze by William and Mary 50-49.

Cincinnati took a while to assume command in their Missouri Valley match at Drake, trailing by as much as five points in the first half. But with Bonham pumping in 15 points in a 10-minute span before intermission the Bearcats left the floor with a two-point edge. Cincinnati limited the Bulldogs to 22 points in the second half and held them scoreless the final three minutes.

Bonham finished with 31 points and, to prove he is no slouch defensively, did a brilliant job on Drake sophomore Gene West, who had scored 21 against Bonham in the squeaker last Thursday night. West got only 2 Monday night.

Purdue got its first victory in eight Big Ten starts, downing Michigan State 103-81. Davidson cashed in on free throws for a 50-49 Southern Conference decision over The Citadel. National scoring leader Nick Werkman collected 31 points as Seton Hall rapped Upsilon 94-71.

Other scores: Utah State 85, Montana 67; Wisconsin 81, Michigan 78; Vanderbilt 74, Alabama 73; overtime: Florida 84, Tennessee 73; Mississippi 60, Louisiana State 48; Maryland 73, Georgetown 72; Texas Western 65, Arizona 50; North Texas State 85, Hardin-Simmons 73.

Nicklaus in Victory Going Away

By JIM BACON

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Jack Nicklaus, golf's million-dollar baby, is $9,000 richer Tuesday, an amazing 8-stroke winner over Gary Player in an 18-hole playoff for the Palm Springs Golf Classic championship.

Ironically, Nicklaus disclosed Monday that he almost cancelled playing in the classic because of bursitis in his hip.

Nicklaus shot a 34-31—65, six-under-par, over the Indian Wells course. He sank 35-foot putts for a birdie 3 on the 17th and for an eagle 3 on the 18th.

"Some weeks you only have to work four days for $9,000," said the smiling 25-year-old National Open champion. "This week I had to work six."

Player ran into disaster in the second nine. After finishing the first nine two strokes behind while shooting even par, Player bogeyed the 10th. He 3-putted from 25 feet, missing an 18-inch in the process.

That was nothing compared with what hit him on 12, where Player saw more palm tree trunks than a camel looking for shade. His tee shot landed behind one tree.

Three strokes behind, Player decided to gamble and took a vicious cut at the ball. It landed smack in back of another palm tree. Still gambling, Player hit the next shot left-handed. The ball hit another palm tree and bounced into a trap.

When the duffer's nightmare finally ended, Player had shot a triple bogey 7—and Nicklaus was six strokes ahead.

On the par 3 13th Nicklaus shot a birdie two and Player was in bogeyville again with a 4.

Player, one of the game's greats and the year's leading money winner, didn't let his bogey trouble upset him. He finished the last 4 holes with three birdies and a par to wind up with a 36-37-73.

All Star Cage Lineups Are About Same

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

Headed by Cincinnati, No. 1 for the 10th straight week, the top six teams held their positions today in The Associated Press college basketball poll.

Behind the unbeaten Bearcats came Loyola of Chicago, Duke,

Illinois, Arizona State and Georgia

Tech, all of them unshaken after a week of solid success.

The last four teams in the order are Colorado, Mississippi

State, Wichita and Stanford—the same as a week ago but in scrambled positions. The poll was based on games through Saturday Feb.

Stanford, loser to Washington

49-47, fell from seventh to 10th and was replaced by Colorado, which climbed a notch after beating Oklahoma 77-68. Mississippi

State rose a single rung to No. 8

on victories over Southern Mississippi and Louisiana State. Wichita moved up from tenth on a 66-38

decision over Tulsa.

Cincinnati, which won over

Drake 65-60 in overtime and St.

Louis 70-40 to extend its season's winning string to 17 games and its over-all streak to 35, drew 42 of the 44 first place votes from the AP's special panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

With 10 points for a first place vote, nine for second, etc., the Bearcats ran up 438 points for a substantial margin over Loyola, winner of 20 straight games.

Loyola, which crushed Washington of St. Louis 118-58 and Iowa first place nominations. The other went to third-place Duke, winner over South Carolina 89-70 and

Man Eats Himself to Death

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) —

Two weeks ago, when Charles

Steinmetz weighed 760 pounds, he said: "I haven't got much time left. I crave food like an alcoholic craves alcohol."

Steinmetz, 38, died Sunday in a hospital. Doctors said he weighed

740 pounds at death—a gain of 70 pounds in two weeks.

Steinmetz complained of lung congestion Saturday. It took 16 men to load him into the rear of a delivery truck for the trip to the hospital. Cause of death awaited the outcome of an autopsy.

Steinmetz, who was 68 inches tall and 76 inches around, said each pound he gained brought him nearer to death, but he couldn't stop. "Other people smoke or drink when they worry,

I find myself a chicken."

At the age of 8, Steinmetz was underweight. He started gaining rapidly in his late teens. He

Chiropractic Board Upheld by the Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas

Supreme Court ruled today that the state board of Chiroprac-tice Examiners did not act improperly in revoking the licenses of Drs. William F. Kuhl and Robert

J. Kuhl, two North Little Rock chiropractors.

The ruling affirmed Pulaski Circuit Court, which earlier upheld the board action.

The Board of chiropractic Examiners acted against the Kuhls after charges alleging that they were unlawfully engaging in the practice of medicine were filed against them by the Arkansas

Medical Board.

The Supreme Court also affirmed Pulaski Circuit Court in the award of $7,500 to the estate of

Harley L. Hall Sr., 90, who died

July 9, 1960, while he was a patient at the Granite Mountain

Rest Home.

Hall's heirs filed suit against the home, alleging that it negligently permitted Hall to drink a large amount of kerosene which led directly to his death.

Crawford Chancery Court was affirmed in ruling that it lacked jurisdiction to try a case filed against a state policeman.

J. D. Dean filed the suit against

Ray Cole, supervisor of the Alma weight station, and T. R. Nash, a trucker, alleging that Cole permitted Nash to violate truck weight laws.

The Supreme Court said any suit against a state trooper who is acting in his official capacity must be filed in Pulaski County, where the State Police are headquartered.

Sebastian County Court was affirmed in a jury refusal to award damages to Mr. and Mrs. K. B.

Wagoner for injuries suffered by

Mrs. Wagoner in an automobile accident involving a car driven by

T. C. Barker.
